ITEM #3: Four nights in a beautiful and remote home in Andros Island, Bahamas that sleeps up to 10 people!

Value: $2,600

Donated by: Phillip & Cathy Smith

A magnificent private, two-acre, ocean home located on Andros Island in the Bahamas at the point where Fresh Creek meets the tongue of the ocean. This unique and remote location provides a relaxing environment but it is very isolated so a car must be rented to get to the house and around the island. Fishing charters, blue holes, and snorkeling around the house are some of the activities that can be enjoyed here besides lounging around without a care in the world. In addition to ocean views throughout the house, the kitchen, living and dining room all provide a view directly across Fresh Creek of an old lighthouse complete with cannons reputed to be once the stopping grounds for pirates. This home will sleep up to 10 people. There are three master suites with king size beds, each with a private full bathroom, and each occupying their own separate wings, providing privacy, ocean views and breezes from every vantage point. The fourth bedroom with two cottage style bunk beds, sleeps up to four people. There is also an outdoor shower. This home is not for those looking for a resort type atmosphere. Check out the house online at: coakleyhousebahamas.com. Please note that there are some blackout dates and cleaning fee is not included. Vacation dates to be arranged with owner and length of stay can be extended for an extra per night fee.
